

What is Guardant?

Software/hardware Guardant dongle serve for protecting software against computer piracy: illegal copying, distribution and use of applications.

The protection system is based on using a dongle. Dongle is a small electronic device, which connects to a computer. Protected applications are 'bound' to the information contained in a dongle.

blocked URL