Dumps, Integers, Strings and Counters

Beside the protected items, algorithms and license tables reviewed above, you can also create fields of the following types in GrdUtil.exe: dump, integer, string and counter.

The dialog box for creating these fields is implemented as a wizard with the following pages: Add field and Field properties. Click [Next] to move to the new window after completing the current dialog.